

We value asking questions to better understand how to live life in a God-centered, Christ-exalting way.

We believe that church should be the place in which people can get solid answers to life questions.

1. What is the difference between Catholics and Protestants?

2. If God knows what I need and what I may ask in prayer, then why do I pray? Also, if He is in control of everything and has a Divine plan, does my prayer change anything?

3. I experience emotional "ups and downs" like everybody, but lately, I have found myself fighting what my friend calls depression. I am not sure if my friend's "diagnoses" is true or not, given, depression seems to be a catch-all for everything these days. Therefore, how do I know if I am "depressed" and how do I remedy it?

4. Can Christians be possessed by demons? Can Satan put thoughts in our mind?
