

Are there two types of Christians in the world today: the “spiritual” – those who follow Jesus and the “carnal” – those whose faith has gone dormant? Can a person profess to trust Christ at one time and then live a life that is indistinguishable from a non-believer and yet still be considered “saved?” Today, we will address this challenging subject.

Two Kinds of Christians?

1 Cor. 2:14-3:9

The Question: Can a Christian be “saved” and yet live like the lost?
