

The word “betray” conjures up all sorts of haunting memories. Whether it was an act of rejection by a family member or being lied about by a friend, betrayal is a hurt that cuts deep. Have you ever considered that Jesus knows what it feels like to have been betrayed? Through examining the betrayal of Jesus by Judas, we will discover vital insights in how to avoid being a Judas ourselves.

The Anatomy of Betrayal

Mark 14:10-11

I. Follow Jesus for _____.

II. _____ that is in front of you.

III. Focus your future _____.