

We value asking questions to better understand how to live life in a God-centered, Christ-exalting way. We believe that church should be the best place in which people can get solid answers to life's questions.

1. How does a Christian get forgiven of sin after becoming a Christian?
2. As a disciple of Christ, I follow His teaching. As a citizen, I am to uphold the Constitution and laws of this country. If or when the law would legislate an action that would necessarily cause me to sin against Christ - if it were against the Law to share the Gospel, then I know I am called to disobey the law of the land given the clear command of Matthew 28:19. However, when/how do I honor the Founders of our Country on something such as the First Amendment? If the right to "free speech" is taken away do I fight for this right? While it is not a "Biblical" right, it was the vision of our Founders and, therefore, to what level does it rise? Civil disobedience (over any subsequent law) that would infringe on it? Do I dismiss the intent of the Founders?
3. Could it be said that God caused Satan to sin initially given that God is the Sovereign and does all that pleases Him (Psalm 135:6)?
