

We value asking questions to better understand how to live life in a God-centered, Christ-exalting way. We believe that church should be the best place in which people can get solid answers to life's questions from God's Word.

1. Why does God speak in the Bible in a way that is hard to understand and can be manipulated into multiple religions? If he wants everyone to believe in him and believe his Word why wouldn't He just speak clearly and to the point instead of parables and symbolization. Doesn't that just invite others to sin by misunderstanding the Bible?
2. I have a friend who struggles with anger and is intimidating to talk with. I want to be helpful to them in getting help, but I don't want to be the brunt of an outburst. How can I help without becoming a source of scorn?
3. If the evil one can impact the world supernaturally and if we as believers are guided supernaturally by the Holy Spirit how can we tell the difference between the supernatural directing of Satan and the supernatural guiding of the Holy Spirit?
4. Satan masquerades as a wolf in sheep's clothing and our good deeds can be seen as filthy rags as is pointed out in Isaiah 64. How do we insure we are acting properly and guided but the Holy Spirit?
5. What was it like for Old Testament believer who had not yet received the Holy Spirit? Was following the Lord more difficult for them if they were not guided in the same way we are today.
